Rehearsal Schedule

Harmonic Uprising will rehearse twice a week in the evening. If chosen to be a member of the group you will be expected to attend all rehearsals. You will learn a large repertoire of music this year of approximately 20 songs. The pieces will be partially learned in rehearsal, but you will be expected to learn a majority of the music outside of rehearsal time.

Performing

Harmonic Uprising will be performing several times each semester. Most of these shows are in the evenings. You need to commit to be at all performances. If you have an evening job, evening classes, or any other evening commitment you will need to make arrangements to miss them in order to perform.

Financial Responsibilities

There is no fee to audition or be a member of Harmonic Uprising. This means that certain costs may need to be covered by the group as they arise during the year, such as performance attire and other group gear. Travel to any off campus concerts will be the sole responsibility of group members unless otherwise notified. Group members will be responsible for helping to fundraise.

Final Word about Harmonic Uprising

Being a member of Harmonic Uprising will be a serious commitment that is both vocally demanding and time consuming, but it if you work hard it will be well worth it. Although there will you receive no physical compensation for your work, the aesthetic rewards of performing in an ensemble will surely be substantial.

Harmonic Uprising is a full semester commitment.
